You can help us by:

- Treating our staff members with respect and courtesy.
- Fully cooperating with our staff members in carrying out their duties.
- Respecting the NQA policies and procedures.
- Being open and honest, and providing accurate information when contacting the NQA so that we know how best to assist you.

Customer Feedback and Comments:
The NQA is committed to providing a high standard of service to all our customers. As such, we always explore process improvement opportunities in order to enhance service standards. For continuous improvement, we will appreciate your feedback on our service delivery. Similarly, we will appreciate your feedback when our service delivery exceeds your expectations.

Lodging a complaint:

- If you have a service-related complaint, you should first contact the supervisor of the staff member you have been dealing with to resolve the problem.

- If the complaint is not resolved within a reasonable time, please contact:

Welcome to the NQA Customer Service Charter.

This charter outlines the standards and quality of service that you, our customers can expect from the NQA at various touch points. These standards will serve as the benchmark against which you can measure our service delivery. As an organisation with a strong client-focused culture, we welcome your comments and feedback regarding our service delivery so that we can continue providing a high standard of service. In this regard, the charter also provides information relating to our clients responsibilities, how to give feedback or lodge service-based complaints.

Who we are:
